

DIVERSE COMMUNITIES UNITED

January 16, 2017

1:00–2:30pm | ETHS Auditorium
1600 Dodge Ave., Evanston

Join us for Y.O.U.'s 11th annual Diverse Communities United (DCU), a celebration of peace, diversity, unity, leadership, and service held on Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day.

This year's theme is "Defiance with Purpose." The youth-led event will feature artistic performances by youth from 11 schools across Evanston and Skokie who seek to realize Dr. King's vision today. The event is free, family-friendly, and open to all ages. A community reception will be held in the lobby outside of the auditorium immediately following the program, showcasing youth artwork. We will also offer tours of our new youth center and headquarters, located across the street at 1911 Church Street.

We look forward to seeing you there!
